

STRIKE A DIALOGUE – THE ENGLISH CONVERSATION CLASSES

GLOBALITES have been given separate English conversation classes to enrich their vocabulary and conversation skills. This has actually made a difference in the way they speak the language, Their confidence level with this second mother language as it is now called, has increased many a folds. As it is not just about understanding literature and knowing various authors and poets but also knowing how to speak in day to day life. The English Conversation Classes aims the conversations we make in our everyday life which enables our Globalites confident, smart and wise. With the school's vision in mind, the conversation classes enhances the everyday speech of its students.